Hoop Dreams Tournament

The 10th Annual Hoop Dreams Tournament is an exciting daylong outdoor community festival and charity basketball competition. The event brings together D.C. public high school students and Washington DC metropolitan region business professionals, and other youth and adults from across the D.C. Metro region. The Tournament offers “open” competition, and does not seek to match teams by age, height or any other criteria. All skill levels are welcome. To provide more playing opportunity, the 2005 Tournament will feature a Consolation Bracket. Teams that lose their first scheduled game, are eligible. Prizes will be awarded to Consolation Bracket winners. Please note that a game won by forfeit may be counted as a “win” when determining if a team qualifies for the Consolation Bracket.

Entry Fee

$80 per team. All teams must have 3 to 5 players to register. Proceeds benefit academic college scholarships and support programs for D.C. public high school students.

High School Student Teams

- Current DC public high school students, and those who graduated in May 2005 and who are 18 or younger as of June 18, 2005, and alumni of the Hoop Dreams Scholarship Fund program, who are currently enrolled in college or who have recently graduated from college, are eligible to play free-of-charge, however all students are encouraged to consider making a personal donation to Hoop Dreams.
- Groups of 3-5 students that may include current students and/or Hoops Dreams alumni can register as a team, or you can register individually and be assigned to a team. You must contact Theo Brannum at tbrannum@hoopdreams.org or at (202) 289-6157 to participate free-of-charge.
- Others students and/or alumni who wish to sign up their own teams may do so on-line or by submitting a regular registration form and paying the normal $80 per team fee.

- Paired over 1,000 DC students and mentors from the local business community.
- Engaged over 1,000 volunteers in community work.
- Built lasting bridges of trust and understanding between diverse individuals in our nation’s capital.

Celebrities, Entertainment and Food

More than just hoops and exciting competition await you at the Tournament. Local celebrities including NBA and WNBA stars are scheduled to visit. Music, other live entertainment, and food and beverages will be provided throughout the day.

Team Captain, Co-Captain & Team Name

Each team must designate a Team Captain, a Co-Captain and a Team Name when they register. The Team Captain will represent the team with tournament officials. If you do not provide a Team Name, the name of the captain will be used to name the team, i.e. the “John Smith Team.”

Official Tournament Rules

Conventional “Streetball” rules apply. All games will be officiated, and volunteers will serve as scorekeepers and timekeepers. Copies of the Official Tournament Rules are available on-line at www.hoopdreams.org, at the Player Registration Event on June 15, 2005 and at the tournament site.

Rain or Shine!

An indoor celebration will be held if the Tournament is cancelled in advance due to rain or the serious threat of heavy, extended rain, or other circumstances that prevents the event from occurring outdoors. This “replacement” event will also be held if the Tournament is cancelled on June 18th after it has started due to rain or other circumstances. The indoor celebration will feature free food, beverages and entertainment and everyone is welcome. A brief program honoring individuals and organizations that have had a positive impact on Hoop Dreams will be held. We regret that it will not be possible to reschedule the Tournament under these circumstances. Check www.hoopdreams.org for the location of this event.

Official Hoop Dreams T-Shirt

Each player and each volunteer who works a full-shift will receive a complimentary Official Hoop Dreams Tournament T-shirt.

Forfeit
